

NEW PROGRAMS: NEW LETTERS ON THE AIR

New Letters on the Air features more than 1,000 half-hour audio interviews and readings by many of the greatest poets, fiction writers, essayists, and playwrights of the past 30 years. The weekly series and its archives can be heard four ways:

- On public radio stations across the country. Call your public radio program director for information.
- Via free weekly podcast (see www.newletters.org/radio for subscription information).
- Streamed weekly on our Web site in Windows Media and RealAudio formats.
- On CD for $13 or on cassette for $10 (postage included). Write to request a printed catalog or browse at www.newletters.org.

For more information about the program, contact the host and producer Angela Elam, or assistant producer, Dennis Conrow, toll-free at (888) 548-2477, or e-mail radio@newletters.org. New Letters on the Air recently added the following shows:
